39 By Ann L. Trebbe

Saturday

Sports

Baseball. The Minnesota Twins take on the Red Sox in Boston (Channel 4, 2:15).

CBS Sports Saturday. Lumberjacks compete in the annual timber carnival from Oregon; Edwin Rosario and Irleis "Cubanito" Perez in a lightweight bout (Channel 9, 4:30).

Wide World of Sports. Roger Stafford and Milt McCrory in a 10round welterweight bout, live from Phoenix; previews of the World Cup Soccer Final from Madrid; and the World Show Jumping Championship equestrian competition from Ireland (Channel 7 at 5).

World Cup Soccer. Taped broadcast of France v. West Germany (Channel 26, 5:30).

Karate. Coverage of championship bouts from Las Vegas (Channel 20, 11:30).

Movies

1835 £

Ulysses (1954). Kirk Douglas in a translation of Homer's epic of post-Troján War adventures (Channel 7, 1:30)

Beast from 20,000 Fathoms (1953). It surfaces long enough to terrorize Manhattan and Coney Island (Channel 20, 1:30).

White Line Fever (1975). Jan-Michael Vincent is a young truck driver battling corruption on the road (Channel 5 at 2).

Fists of Fury (1973). Bruce Lee practices his kung fu while he's a factory worker (Channel 20 at 3).

Empire of the Ants (1977). Giant ants star in this H.G. Wells story about an attack on humans living on a remote Florida island (Channel 5, Midnight Cowboy (1969). An Oscar winner with Dustin Hoffman and Jon Voight playing a New York hustler and a naive young Texan (Channel 5 at 8).

Marooned (1969). Gregory Peck, Richard Crenna, David Janssen, James Franciscus and Gene Hackman in a story of astronauts trapped in space (Channel 20 at 8).

The Great Waldo Pepper (1975). Robert Redford portrays a daredevil pilot of the 1920s (Channel 5, 11:30; tomorrow at 4).

The Sergeant (1968). Rod Steiger's performance dominates this of repressed

Highlights

CBS airs a report on terminally ill people in "CBS Reports: A Time to Die"; also on CBS, "Walt Disney" presents the Robert Louis Stevenson story "Kidnapped," and the Oscarwinning movie "Midnight Cowboy" is shown on Channel 5. Tomorrow, ABC telecasts the World Cup Soccer Final live from Spain; the Phillips Collection is featured on CBS' "Sunday Morning"; and the comedy movie "What's New, Pussycat?" is unreeled on Channel 20.

(Channel 9 at 2).

Assignment 7. Chris Gordon discusses American involvement in the Lebanon crisis (Channel 7 at 7).

Public Broadcasting

Ireland: A Television History. Conclusion. A look at conflicts of the '80s (Channel 26 at 8).

NOVA (CC) (R). Topic the causes of aging (Channel 32 at 8).

Evening at Pops. The King's Singers, a group from England, join maestro John Williams (Channel 26

American Playhouse (CC) (R). John Cheever's "The Shady Hill Kidnapping" about the disappearance of a child in a suburban community (Channel 32 at 9).

Search for the Nile. Part one of a six-part documentary about 19thcentury explorers who search for the source of the Nile (Channel 26 at Jazz at the Maintenance Shop. With the Phil Woods Quartet (Channel 32 at 10).

Special

CBS Reports: A Time to Die (Channel 9 at 10) is previewed by Tom Shales on page C7.

Series

wants to bring back to life her former lead guitarist; and Tom Smothers is an English professor who wants to meet King Arthur (Channel 7 at 10).

Late Night

Saturday Night Live (R). With host and musical guest Rod Stewart (Channel 4, 11:30).

Sunday

Magazine

Sunday Morning. Segments include a tour of the Phillips Collection here; a report on unemployment among black teen-agers; profiles on migrant workers, pianist dre-Michel Schub, and Pat Nelly, owner of the San Diego Padres farm team; and a look at Charles-Burchfield's watercolors (Channel 9 at 10 a.m.).

Public Affairs

This Week With David Brinkley. With Sen. Christopher J. Dodd (D-Conn.), Sen. Carl Levin (D-Mich.) and Yitzhak Shamir, Israeli minister of foreign affairs, all interviewed live from the Middle East (Channel 7, 11:30).

Face the Nation. With Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) (Channel 9,

Meet the Press. With Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger (Channel 4, 12:30).

It's Your Business. Topic: "Personal Tax Cuts: Boom or Bust?" (Channel 7, 12:30).

America's Black Forum. Guest is Althea Simmons, chief lobbyist and director of the Washington bureau of the NAACP, who will discuss the group's recent convention in Boston (Channel 7, 1:30).

Firing Line. William F. Buckley presents "The Odyssey of a Southern Liberal," with Morris Abram, former president of Brandeis University (Channel 26 at 5).

Newsprobe. "Young, Bored and Disadvantaged," about the opportunities available to young people during the summer (Channel 20, 8:30).

Petey Greene's Washington. With a discussion of the recent drug and sex allegations on Capitol Hill (Channel 20, 9:30).

Sports

World Cup Soccer Final. Live from Madrid, Italy v. West Garmani

:00

:00

:00 D.30

:00

:00

:00

 $2^{\infty}_{.30}$ :00 Un :30 Flo

> vice and her (Chan What's Peter Sel Woody A chase do Peter O'To The Ma ing (197 Sarah Mil